It's Easy Being Cheesy: Our Long Beach Picks for National Cheese Pizza Day

Dean's Pizza (929 Redondo Ave.)

There are three words that capture what makes Dean's cheese pizza so spectacular: Thai, curry, sauce. Long Beach has a prominent Thai community, so it only makes sense that this East Long Beach principal pie generator combines our city's love of pizza with a unique blend of seasonings found in many of our favorite Thai dishes. If you want to step it up a notch—and by notch, we mean spit in the face of the Plain Cheese diety—try their signature Thai Curry Pizza that adds bell peppers, basil, chicken and onions to the pizza mix.
